The Most Anticipated Event YWD AT THE TAGLYAN CULTURAL COMPLEX

"YWD Event (of the year!!!)...we cannot wait to see the spread in the Magazine in the coming weeks."
~ Pauline, Jean and Dan, Good Gracious! Events

Bridal inspiration took on new form this year with our exclusive YWD bridal and industry event located at one of Los Angeles's newest private luxury locations, Taglyan Cultural Complex. Over 1,100 brides, grooms and industry professionals attended and were given a never-before-seen backstage pass into the making of a magazine with our YWD Spring|Summer 2010 issue. Multiple photo-shoot sets were designed to highlight the latest trends in wedding décor and styling while simultaneously providing numerous platforms of inspiration and opportunities to eat, drink and mingle with the best wedding professionals in the industry!

"Your creativity supplied the event industry with a large dose of inspiration. Apparently, many people were in need of such a reinvigorating experience."
~ Youngsong Martin, President, Wildflower Linens
